Aluminum Soffit

Performance and Style

Our aluminum soffit combines durability and style, offering long-lasting protection for your home. Its metal strength and painted finish ensure durability, while ventilation keeps attics cool, reduces heat transfer, and prevents condensation and ice dams. This extends the roof's lifespan and lowers heating and cooling costs. Aesthetically, it creates clean, sharp lines that mimic traditional wood soffits.

Aluminum Trim Coil

Flexibility Meets Function

Our trim coil cuts clean, bends sharp and lays flat. It protects homes, creates a finished, clean appearance, and matches virtually every siding and trim product color produced in the industry. Plus, our trim coil is backed by Ply Gem's leading warranties*.

COLOR AND MORE COLOR

Full portfolio of in-demand colors in widths up to 24" and over 100 trim coil colors to match most national brands.

FINISH COAT OPTIONS

- Two-coat acrylic smooth finish
- Woodgrain finish
- PVC striated finish
- Textured satin finish

*See complete warranty for details.

Expertly Finished For Low Maintenance

We apply a 2-coat finish to every product. The finish combines a corrosion-inhibiting primer layer with an ultra-low, low-mar topcoat to create a superior finish that resists fading, scrapes and scratches.

- Excellent stain and dirt resistance
- Two coats means better corrosion protection and superior weatherability
- Mar-resistant formulation reduces clean up
- Increased resistance to chalking
- Excellent color retention over many years
- Improved coating adhesion

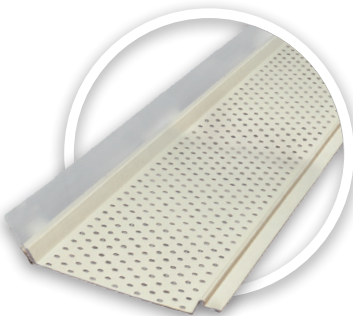

Gutter Protection Systems

A Beautifully Defensive Solution

Essential to the health of any home, our gutter protection products keep out leaves and debris so gutters function properly. All gutter systems are backed by industry-leading warranties.

Leaf Relief is our most popular leaf protection product with over 100 million feet installed. Backed by Ply Gem's 25-year warranty*

Leaf Logic uses a unique ripple design to stop wet leaves from sticking and keep gutters clear. Leaf Logic is backed by Ply Gem's 20-year warranty.*
