New Cascade Ledge

This versatile style works well with all types of architecture, especially contemporary settings. A mix of ledge stones and cobble jumpers fit tightly together to create long, clean lines with a detail face texture. Easy to install, Cascade Ledge adds beauty to columns, interior and exterior walls, fireplaces, foundations – anywhere horizontal stacked shapes would enhance the surroundings.
New Manorstone

This rustic style combines field and ledge stones with a smooth, split face. Varied shapes and sizes create a natural, organic look that works well on interior and exterior walls, fireplaces, columns and outdoor living spaces. A choice of four colors coordinates with any palette.
